

✚ Translate the following expressions with the help of the pictures:

| | |
|---|---|
|  | Bow down: formerly when you were before a king you should bow down. It is a synonym of kneel down. |
|  | Pick up (picked up): every week you must pick up your room |
|  | Dive in: you do it when you get in the water. |
|  | Ain't always what it seems: |
|  | Den: the shelter or retreat of a wild animal. |
|  | Crash (crashing from the high): the waves crash against the rock. |

| | |
|---|--|
|  | Wish (I wish I knew then): the genius grant you three wishes. |
|  | Crumbling: it is a synonym of fall. |
|  | Thunder: The crashing sound produced by rapidly expanding air along the path of the electrical discharge of lightning. |
|  | Concrete: Mix of cement, water, sand, and gravel that hardens into a super-strong building material. |
|  | Pretend: to give a false appearance of. |
|  | Hold on: to keep from falling or moving, support. |