PROJECT 2

- GOING OUT CONVERSATION

Create a conversation with a partner. We are going to practice vocabulary about going out and free time activities. Then, after practising with the following sample conversation you will have to create your own with a partner. Enjoy it!

A CONVERSATION BETWEEN TWO FRIENDS

Nora and Cristal are both friends and are having a conversation about what to do at the weekend. They plan to have something to eat and then go to the movies.

Nora: So, what are your plans for this weekend?

Cristal: I don't know. Do you want to get together?

Nora: Good idea! How about going to the bowling alley?

Cristal: Don't you prefer to see a movie? Cinebox on Plaza Mar II is showing Joy, starring Robert de Niro.

Nora: That sounds great. Maybe we should go out to eat beforehand.

Cristal: It is fine with me. Do you want to meet on Friday?

Nora: Sorry, I have plans on Friday. I have to take my cousin to a birthday party. How about Saturday?

Cristal: Ok, I'm free all weekend. Where do you want to meet?

Nora: Let's meet at the restaurant. I have not gone there for a long time.

Cristal: That's perfect. I heard they just came up with a new pizza. It should be good because they always have the best pizza in town.

Nora: When should we meet?

Cristal: Well, the movie is shown at 18:00PM, 20:00PM and 22:00PM.

Cristal: Why don't we go to the 18:00 show? We can meet at the restaurant at 14:00PM. That will give us plenty of time to talk.

Nora: Great. See you there!

Cristal: Bye.
